

How can SOS Children's Villages Canada help me with my event?

We hope your online participant center and fundraising page will be very helpful to you as you plan and carry out your event. SOS Children's Villages Canada can also provide:

- online tools to create your own fundraising page, and to invite others to donate and track your progress.
- online support materials such as posters, and other informational pieces, based on availability.
- acknowledgment of your direct contribution to SOS Children's Villages Canada.

SOS Children's Villages Canada cannot provide:

- staff or volunteer help for your event.
- promotion of your event any place.
- share access to donor or member contact information.
- fund or reimburse any expenses incurred throughout the planning and execution of the event or apply for any licenses for your event.

What kind of SOS Children's Villages materials do I have access to for my event?

Online, you will find pledge forms, poster, fundraising tips, event ideas.

Where do the funds I raise go?

The funds raised by you through your fundraising event will be used for our programs around the world to build families for children in need and the development of their communities. Please visit our website at www.soschildrensvillages.ca to read recent annual reports and a detailed breakdown of how donor dollars are used in the work of SOS Children's Villages Canada.

Will my donors and I receive a tax receipt for the amount raised?

Yes, you and your sponsors will receive a tax receipt for donations of $10 or more. Please make sure that you provide us with complete information for tax receipt purposes.

How will the information collected because of my fundraiser be used by SOS Children's Villages Canada?

The information collected will be used for purposes of fundraising event registration, issuing tax receipts (as applicable), periodic updates from the field and opportunities to support the mission.
